

Serving Legal Needs of Business in USA <sup>SM</sup>

CLG serves business clients in connection with their business legal needs within the United States. Our clients include: manufactures, media and advertisement companies, international distributors, retailers, developers of mobile applications, construction and design companies and e-commerce businesses.

CLG offers a broad range of legal services to domestic and international clientele and include:

Business Law

- forming partnerships, corporations and limited liability companies
- joint-ventures
- distributorship, manufacturing and supply agreements
- loan agreements and secured transactions
- purchase and sale of businesses
- food and alcohol import licenses

Intellectual Property and E-commerce Law

- trademark and copyright registrations
- licensing agreements
- website related agreements
- internet domain name disputes and online trademark infringement

Virtual General Counsel Service

Serve as a virtual general counsel service for a flat monthly fee. This service includes:

- review, draft and negotiations of contracts and agreements
- business negotiations and resolutions of disputes
- attend board, committee and business meetings
- protection of legal rights and mitigation the risk of future litigation